ZFF Zentrum für Frühförderung

ZFF Centre for Early Intervention

The Centre for Early Intervention (ZFF) supports parents of infants and preschool children who have questions or concerns relating to the upbringing or development of their child. We work closely with other professionals and those involved in the child's care.

Who are we?

We are an interdisciplinary team with professionals from:

- psychology
- special education
- speech and language therapy
- social work

We can talk to you about:

- Your child's development
- The planning and organisation of your family life
- suitable support to encourage the development of your child

Who can contact us?

- Mothers, fathers and other carers of infants and preschool children living in the Kanton of Basel-Stadt, up until the time at which the child starts Kindergarten (e.g. Playgroup leaders, Nursery staff working in Basel-Stadt).

What do we offer?

- Information about child development
- Advice and guidance on parenting and supporting your child
- Child development assessments
- Support for children with developmental delay or special needs
- Support for children with speech and language difficulties or delay

The costs for these services are covered by the Kanton of Basel-Stadt.
